WORDS OF WELCOME AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR DISCIPLESHIP

PASSING THE PEACE

"...I was a stranger and you welcomed me."

Matthew 25:35b

The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

And also with you.

(The people may greet each other in the spirit of Christ.)

CHORAL INTROIT

CALL TO WORSHIP

Liturgist

This is the season of Lent, when we remember Jesus' journey to the wilderness and follow him.

We follow with our minds the stories of scripture; we follow with our hearts the temptations put to Jesus, understanding our own temptations; we follow with hands and feet through recommitment to justice; we follow with the wings of the Spirit in prayer and meditation.

May our minds be open, our hands be strong, and our spirits be devoted.

Let us travel along with Jesus, examining our temptations, resisting them and returning to God.

THE LENTEN WREATH – THE FIRST CANDLE IS EXTINGUISHED

Scrib and Pat Sheafor

In Lent, we reflect on the meaning of our lives and our journey of faith. The candles are burning now, but in the weeks to come, the light will fade to darkness. In retelling the story of Jesus' betrayal, suffering, and death, we find that God brings transformation and new possibilities out of darkness. We walk with Christ to the cross, letting go of all that holds us back from new life.

(Silence)

As we extinguish this light, we let go of our fear: fear of failure, fear of rejection, fear of illness, fear of death, fear of meaninglessness.

(A candle is extinguished.)

Loving God, as we journey through this holy season, give us the courage to walk toward you, to step out in faith, and to let go of fear. Open our hearts so that we may love fully and allow ourselves to be fully loved. Amen.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND PARDON

We pause here to examine our lives, our temptations and the ways we have fallen short before our God. Let us confess our sins together. Let us pray:

Gracious God, as we wander through this wilderness with Jesus, examining all the worldly comforts we turn to during times of stress and struggle, we confess the neglect of our faith. We confess all that we place above you, making idols of money, earthly power, and even food. Empty us this Lent, Holy God. Guide us in our spiritual practices so we can leave this wilderness season more aware of your presence and the ways our faith can sustain us.

Amen.

Silent Confession

*KYRIE

Lord, have mercy,
Christ, have mercy,
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Remember and receive these hopeful words from John, "If you continue in my word, you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." Receive God's truth. Receive God's grace. We accept the freedom God provides and know we are forgiven. Thanks be to God. Amen.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

THE HEBREW TESTAMENT READING: Genesis 2:15-17, 3:1-7 (The Common English Bible)

The LORD God took the human and settled him in the garden of Eden to farm it and to take care of it. The LORD God commanded the human, "Eat your fill from all of the garden's trees; but don't eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, because on the day you eat from it, you will die!"

The snake was the most intelligent of all the wild animals that the LORD God had made. The snake said to the woman, "Did God really say that you shouldn't eat from any tree in the garden?"

The woman said to the snake, "We may eat the fruit of the garden's trees but not the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden. God said, 'Don't eat from it, and don't touch it, or you will die.'"

The snake said to the woman, "You won't die! God knows that on the day you eat from it, you will see clearly and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." The woman saw that the tree was beautiful with delicious food and that the tree would provide wisdom, so she took some of its fruit and ate it, and also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. Then they both saw clearly and knew that they were naked. So they sewed fig leaves together and made garments for themselves.

The Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

(From Colossians 1:15-20; The Common English Bible)

The Son is the image of the invisible God,
 the one who is first over all creation,
 Because all things were created by him:
 both in the heavens and on the earth,
 the things that are visible and the things that are invisible.
 Whether they are thrones or powers,
 or rulers or authorities,
 all things were created through him and for him.
 He existed before all things,
 and all things are held together in him.
 He is the head of the body, the church,
 who is the beginning,
 the one who is firstborn from among the dead
 so that he might occupy the first place in everything.
 Because all the fullness of God was pleased to live in him,
 and he reconciled all things to himself through him—
 whether things on earth or in the heavens.
 He brought peace through the blood of his cross. Amen.

*BENEDICTION

Go now, and live in the spirit of your baptism,
even when you are led into wild and hard places.
In quietness and trust, give yourselves to God.
With fasting and prayer, strengthen yourselves against the ways of the tempter.

May God enfold you in tender and lasting love,
Christ be at your side in times of struggle,
And the Holy Spirit guide you back when you stray,
that you may keep God's sacred covenant.

We go in peace to love and serve the Lord,
in the name of Christ. Amen.
